

FOUND WITH STOLEN SHOES

SHERIFF AND DEPUTY MAKE A CLEVER CAPTURE.

Box Car Thief Found on Street—Officers Looking for Accomplice—Thirty-one Pairs of Shoes Missing.

Sheriff Barlow Wilson and Deputy Sheriff John Hutchens made a clever capture last evening in the arrest of a man giving his name as Dan Mc-Vay. It was reported yesterday morning that a box car containing a consignement of rubber shoes had been broken into at the Union depot and thirty-one pairs of shoes stolen.

The officers were given no clue whatever as to the identity of the guilty parties as there were no witnesses to the theft. But they went to work on the case, feeling that who ever made the steal would very likely try to dispose of some of the shoes, the weather being so propitious for the sale of such articles.

Their efforts were rewarded last evening when they found Mr. McVay on lower Twenty-fifth street with a number of pairs of rubber shoes in his possession. An examination of the shoes found in the hands of the man disclosed the fact that they were the identical ones taken from the car.
After McVay's arrest he made a partial confession of the theft and implicated a "pal" in the affair. The officers are now looking for the accomplice.
